This world is filled with that waves.

About DEN-PA

I haven't drawn stories about music, so I made this.
But I couldn't draw well what I wanted to draw.
When I was making this story, I finally got a cell phone through which I could send emails.
I finally caught up with the wave of the world.
Well, email is very convenient.
This story originally had another couple though, it was impossible for me to draw them because pages were limited.
So I didn't draw them, I want to draw them when I have the opportunity.

Chiaki Tamura[19]

It's odd that he has a little sister.
Happy-go-lucky guy.

Aya Nishikawa[16]

Her family name doesn't appear in the story.
In anything, she is kind of cold.
Or she acts like she's cold.
